

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Tomorrow is Advent Sunday.
 Bruce Cartwright left on the Kinau for Maalaen.
 The band will play at Emma square at 4:15 this afternoon.
 James H. Boyd and family left on the Kinau yesterday for Hilo.
 Clam and fish chowders will be served at the Hawaiian hotel billiard parlor this evening.
 J. J. Williams, the photographer, has gone to Hawaii for a tour that will last about six weeks.
 The services to be held at the various churches tomorrow are tabulated on another page.
 Behold how great a business a little advertising kindleth when the BULLETIN is used as its medium.
 J. T. Lewis, the coffee planter, has one of the finest places in Olan district. Fifty acres have been planted.
 D.B. Smith, the well-known boot and shoe man, has gone to Hilo on business. He left on the Kinau yesterday.
 A terrific kona rain storm burst on the town shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The down-pour seemed more like jets than drops.
 An editorial note on the late exercise of the pardoning power, together with some local news, was crowded out of yesterday's issue.
 B. Tozer, who was on board the Coptic with a valet, is writing his travels around the world for a British magazine. He saw the best sights of Honolulu while the steamer was in port.
 A merchant telephoned direct to his customers for their trade when he inserts an advertisement in the BULLETIN, the best advertising medium in Hawaii.
 The program for the entertainment to be given at Foster Hall by the Young Hawaiians' Institute this evening for the purpose of raising funds for a library appears in another column.
 The San Francisco Board of Health, at its last meeting before the mail left, decided that thereafter vessels from Honolulu will not be subjected to delay in order to permit the Board to pass on their bills of health.
 C. S. Desky has gone to Hilo for the purpose of making a personal inspection of the Olan and Kona coffee districts. He is already favorably impressed with the opportunities offered from the culture of the coffee berry.
 George Manson left on the Keahou last night to write up the leper settlement for the BULLETIN. The members of the Board of Health and their invited guests expect to leave Honolulu at 5 o'clock this evening and make the return trip in less than 5 hours.
 The alterations to the Chinese theatre are so far completed that a performance can be given to-night. The gallery has been enlarged and fitted up with private boxes. It will take another week before the alterations are fully completed.
 Customs officer Charles Thurston, who found the opium on the Claudine on Tuesday, made ten dollars very easy. He found twenty tins containing ten pounds. The authorities now allow the officers a dollar a pound for all the opium they discover.
 The three sails of the whaler Gayhead, mentioned in this paper the other day as about to be arrested at San Francisco, for trying to burn and also to sink the ship, were arrested but were released by the United States Commissioners, and are reported to intend bringing suits for damages against the captain and the Honolulu authorities.
 A Hindu from on board the Coptic was shown President Dole at the military review, when he asked, "What does he?" "He is President of the Republic," was answered by the BULLETIN representative. "But what is his business?" the turbaned stranger asked. "We, he was a lawyer, then he became a judge, and now he is President." The Hindu still seemed embarrassed but when the scribe further explained, "He is the boss," faint gleam of intelligence passed over the swarthy features of India's son.

Ex-Minister Castle is about starting for home.
 In the Aloha's cargo is a large lot of guns and ammunition.
 William, a negro, drunk and disorderly, was fined $2 and costs.
 Designs for the great seal will be received until noon on Monday.
 The Pioneer Building & Loan Association will meet Monday evening.
 The Sharpshooters will begin a six months' series of contests the first of the year.
 Apply to W. H. Pain or C. D. Chase for a new cottage on Liliha street.
 The S. S. Mount Lebanon is advertised to sail hence for Yokohama on or about Dec. 21.
 The Wall Nichols Company in this issue announce their opening. See what they say.
 The amateurs will be fortunate if next Saturday's weather is as favorable for baseball as today's.
 Government employees will help largely to make money circulate this afternoon and evening.
 C. V. Sturdevant has sold out his New Process stove business to Castle & Cooke.
 J. H. Bolster the reporter has recovered from his long siege of illness sufficiently to take easy walks.
 Miss S. E. Peterson, American, Beni Paakai, Kamana and Dan Kukahoe, Hawaiian, have taken the oath to the Republic.
 There was a very successful rehearsal for the Y. H. I. concert tonight at Y. M. C. A. hall yesterday evening.
 Mokapu, a native, got too much gin aboard last night and found that it cost him three dollars before Judge Perry this morning.
 There was a very pleasurable concert given by the Kawaihae Seminary girls to a large audience at that institution last night.
 Colonel McLean has issued a letter to the troops, praising their appearance and marching, and another to Marshal Brown, eulogizing the police in the parade.
 Ornate certificates of service signed by President Dole and Adjutant General Soper are about to be issued to volunteers who aided in suppressing the January insurrection.
 Captain Williamson of the bark City of Adelaide before he sailed wished this paper to contradict an item in the Advertiser, stating that some of his sailors regarded the vessel as unseaworthy.
 Young Yet, a gentleman from the Flowery Kingdom, found it expensive to beat his broken down horse as he drove along Honolulu highways and was assessed five dollars and costs for so doing.
 Late Coast charters are as follows: S. S. Kahului, wheat to Sydney; German bark J. C. Glade, wheat to Europe; Hawaiian bark Santiago, merchandise to Hilo.
 Time came out at two to day. Editorially the paper makes a kick against the Molokai excursion. Advocates release of all the prisoners. Some interesting poetry by new contributors and a full account of the foot ball game, including pictures of some of the players.
 Kuhia broke rule 25 of the carriage regulations, inasmuch as he got drunk and then attempted to drive his hack, which he discovered was contrary to law. He also used indecent language to his animal and the passersby. Kuhia, therefore, paid $25 cash bail to the court and was conducted by his friends to a place where he could sober up. After doing so he went down to the police court and paid six dollars with many expressions of repentance thrown in manuahi.
 Dr. W. L. Moore of Hilo dropped in to greet his friends on the BULLETIN a day or so ago and related several interesting episodes relative to his experience while in charge of the Michigan hospitals. Dr. Moore went through the small-pox siege of '93 and at that time was the physician in chief of the State hospitals. He is now practicing in Hilo, and ranks very high as a skilled practitioner, making a specialty of diseases of the eye and ear.

ST. ANDREW'S EVE.

Festival of Scotland's Patron Saint at the Thistle Club.
 Last night being the eve of St. Andrew's Day and the regular meeting night of the Scottish Thistle Club, the occasion was celebrated by the members and some friends. There was an attendance of more than thirty, and all were made glad they had come. Before starting with a program improvised a few minutes beforehand, the club voted the Salvation Army the use of the hall Tuesday evening next for a nominal consideration. It also passed a vote of thanks to Alex. Wallace, a member just returned from Scotland, for a beautiful souvenir album of Edinburgh and a big bunch of heather. Every member and guest was decorated with a sprig of the heath flower so dear to native Scots. The program was as follows, refreshments coming in occasionally:
 Opening remarks.....Chief Logan
 Violin selections.....W. Eadie
 Song.....Arch C. Steele
 Song.....W. Eadie
 Recitation—St. Andrew's Night, Geo. L. Dall
 Toast—"Immortal Memory of Saint Andrew".....Chieftain Laing
 Song—"Sandy Macfarlane".....Mr. McRae
 Essay—"Carlyle".....Thos. Black
 Song.....Mr. Filtre
 Violin.....W. Eadie
 Toast.....Geo. Turner
 Toast—"Our Island Members".....Geo. L. Dall
 Recitation.....T. S. Kay
 Song.....T. McMillan

After the foregoing had been gone through, Chieftain Laing proposed a toast to "The Press," to which a humorous response was given by Mr. Kenyon of the Independent, followed by Mr. Timmons of the Star, who closed an eloquent panegyric on Robert Louis Stevenson with a toast to his "immortal memory." While this was being honored the bust of Stevenson, who was at his death an honorary chieftain of the club, was placed on the chief's table. Mr. Lynn of the bark City of Adelaide sang a song. Mr. Steele read an amusing description of a St. Andrew's celebration. Then the club sang "A Hundred Pipers" in chorus and the meeting dispersed with "Auld Lang Syne." Mr. Black's essay on Carlyle was an excellent effort and was listened to with close attention throughout.

Long Established.
 F. Horn, the enterprising baker and confectioner on Hotel street, has some very pretty things in the way of choice confections, etc., in his show cases. Mr. Horn not only makes every variety of bread, pies and cakes, but has also a large line of French bonbons and a number of extremely handsome pieces of what is really art, in the way of candy. The latter consists of fruit, flower and figure pieces executed in a manner that deserves special mention. Mr. Horn has been in business here for forty years and has always been an eminent caterer in his line. His son has thoroughly learned the trade and now relieves the veteran. Mrs. Horn has made a specialty of fine guava jelly.

Hawaiian Historical Society.
 President Dole presided at the annual meeting of the Hawaiian Historical Society at the Y. M. C. A. building last night. Prof. Alexander, corresponding secretary, reported that little had been done the past year, owing to political and sanitary disturbances. G. P. Castle, treasurer, reported a balance of $301.30 in the funds. Miss Burbank, librarian, told of work done and suggested certain things that ought to be done. A paper by M. M. Gower of New Haven was read, describing his voyage to the islands in 1858-9 and subsequent residence here. Miss Tenira Henry read a paper on Tahiti, which proved highly interesting.
